Man, 65, Is Hurt In Local Accident

Charles Malsenhelder, 65, of 11 East St. James street, suffered a head injury at 5:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, when he was struck and knocked down by a truck, according to a report filed with the police department.

Mr. Malsenhelder was removed to the Kingston Hospital in the corner ambulance where his condition this morning was reported as good. An X-ray will be taken today to determine the extent of his head injury.

According to the police the truck was being operated by Louis Snyder of 45 St. James street. The accident occurred near the intersection of Albany avenue and East St. James street.

Jack Nichols Is Killed In Middle East Crash

Washington, Nov. 8 (AP)—Rep. Johnson (D-Okla.) said today that Jack Nichols, former Oklahoma congressman, had been reported killed in a plane crash "somewhere in the Middle East."

Johnson said his information was received by telephone from Clark Nichols, a brother.

Nichols was traveling, it is presumed, in his capacity as vice president of Transcontinental and Western Airlines. He quit Congress several years ago to take that position.

Nichols was 49, a native of Joplin, Mo. He was a veteran of the first World War. His first public office was the House seat from the Second District of Oklahoma to which he was elected in 1934, and reelected to three subsequent terms.

Hallinan Burned Fighting Fire at Service Station

Captain Joseph Hallinan of the Kingston Fire Department suffered burns to his face and arm while fighting a fire at the Stone service station on Ferry street on Wednesday afternoon at 4:03 o'clock. The fire wrecked a pump house at the station, and did considerable damage to a truck.

According to fire officials the fire was evidently started by a spark from the electric motor in the pump house, which ignited the gas vapors. At the time a tank on the truck was being filled with gas.

The blaze flashed back along the hose of the tank truck, igniting the vapors around the tank intake, but the gas in the tank of the truck did not ignite.

A fog nozzle on the fire hose was used by the firemen in fighting the fire, and Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy said that the "water fog" proved very effective in extinguishing the fire.

Considerable damage was done to the truck, the tires being burned and the paint on the truck blistered.

Captain Hallinan returned to duty after being treated at the hospital for burns.

McSpirt Injured, Two Autos Damaged

Robert McSpirt, 17, of the Saw-kill road, suffered an injury to his right shoulder, and two automobiles were damaged in a collision at the intersection of Bruyn avenue and Elmendorf street at 7 o'clock this morning, according to a police report.

The boy was riding with his mother, Mrs. Sarah McSpirt, who was operating a Plymouth sedan over Bruyn avenue, while Leslie Hotelling of Yarmouth street, was proceeding over Elmendorf street.

At the intersection the two cars crashed.

The McSpirt car was damaged about the front end and left side, while the Hotelling car was damaged on the front and fender.

The boy was taken to the Beneficence Hospital for treatment.

Says Training Needed

Washington, Nov. 8 (AP)—Congress got it straight from Secretary of War Patterson today that a year's military training for every young American is needed to make it possible for us to undertake world peace.

"Give the United States security to underwrite world peace." On one of the hottest days of the post-war Congress, this also happened: A Senate-House committee investigating the Pearl Harbor disaster was assured of any information it wants. The White House said President Truman had ordered heads of all government agencies to authorize their employees to give the committee "any information of which they may have knowledge."

Bill Called Dead

Washington, Nov. 8 (AP)—The House Military Committee's first session to consider universal military training broke up today in a dispute over a move to postpone further action until next year. The surprise move by Rep. Short (Ill., Dem.) was blocked on a technicality by the asserted he would remove the attempt tomorrow. He told supporters: "You can say this bill is dead; it would be dead right now if we had been allowed to vote this morning."

Chinese Communists Are Left in Control of Hulutao, Hingkow; Centrals Retreat

Chungking, Nov. 8 (AP)—The Yenian Communists demanded today as the price for peace in China that the Central Government withdraw all troops from Communist-dominated "liberated" areas in North China.

Chou En-Lai, Yenian negotiator here and No. 2 Chinese Communist, announced the Yenian answer to Kuomintang peace proposals shortly after reports that the Russians had withdrawn from the Manchurian ports of Hulutao and Ying-kow (Newchwang) leaving the Chinese Reds in command, heightened the already tense atmosphere.

Chou said the Communists demanded that the Kuomintang withdraw to positions outside the "liberated" areas before the civil fighting began and order all Nationalist troops to cease firing.

The worried looking Communist representative told newsmen of the Yenian reply to Chiang Kai-Shek's offer and said he would deliver it to Nationalist government officials later today.

"The situation," he added, "appears dangerous."

Russians Move Forces

Chungking, Nov. 8 (AP)—Reports that Russian forces had suddenly been withdrawn from the Manchurian ports of Hulutao and Hingkow (Newchwang), leaving the Chinese Communists in control, were received here today amid growing signs of impending crisis in the undeclared civil war.

Other developments were: The Central Government admitted receiving its first serious setback in the fighting in southern Hopho province.

Communists followed up the announcement in Washington, that American Marines would be withdrawn from the trouble zone with a series of four protests to the American commander in Yenian, and held the Americans "responsible for any grave consequence" resulting from their presence.

The long awaited reply of the Yenian Communist Headquarters Kuomintang peace proposals were undelivered to the Central Government, was understood to contain counterproposals necessitating further delay in the cease fire order.

The reported Russian withdrawal in Manchuria posed still further troubles for the Central Government, and greater delays in the landing of Kuomintang troops, none of which have been reported actually landed from American transports as yet.

The turning over of the ports to the Communists would strengthen their position in the area where they have opposed bitterly the presence of the Americans.

The protests, which the Communists New China Daily News said were addressed to the "chief of the American Military Mission in Yenian," were written by Chu Teh, Communist commander in

Associated Press Foreign Editor Says Occupation Will Take From Three to Four Years

(Glenn Babb, foreign editor of The Associated Press, has returned on leave to the Orient to study conditions under allied occupation. Babb went from Asia to New York in 1925 after long service in North China and as chief of bureau in Tokyo. In this article he discusses the occupation of Japan after conferences with General MacArthur, Premier Shidehara and other high American and Japanese officials.)

By GLENN BABB

Tokyo, Nov. 8 (AP)—America's tremendous task in Japan possibly can be fulfilled within three to five years, with an occupying force of approximately 200,000 men.

That is the expressed opinion of many of the men here who should know best, provided the present rate of progress is maintained and there are no drastic changes in policies given occupying authorities.

There is confidence here that within such a period militarism can be eradicated, a reasonable facsimile of democracy planted, and a satisfactory measure of economic well-being restored. Then, according to this view, American and other Allied armies can be withdrawn, possibly to be replaced by some other form of control, with confidence that Japan will be useful member of the family of nations with no desire or power to make war again.

This picture was developed from talks with the highest leaders of both Americans and Japanese. The confidence expressed is personal; many Americans here agree.

There are many Japanese who view the future darkly. A few express the hope that American occupation will last many years, regarding it as a shield against further disaster.

General MacArthur and his staff were among those with whom I discussed Japan's future, but the general would not permit his conversation to be quoted and he is in no way responsible for the statements made herein. My talks with Premier Shidehara and members of his cabinet contributed to these conclusions.

MacArthur is known to be content with the progress of his program of demilitarization and democratization.

In public statements, the Supreme Allied Commander has expressed confidence that an occupation force of 200,000 for both Japan and Korea will be sufficient after next spring if no untold developments occur. He has emphasized the completeness of Japan's defeat and humiliation and the destruction of her ability to make war.

Americans and Japanese agree that thus far there has been 100 per cent compliance with the series of hard-hitting directives issued from MacArthur's Headquarters. The initial occupation was completely bloodless; there have been no subsequent instances of revolt against American control of authority on the grounds of legitimacy in the making. But, those who believe in a relatively

Success Is Far Off on Problems

Molotov Is Reported to Have Turned Down Proposal of Americans

Treaty Expires

Russian-Turkish Pact of Nonaggression Has Run Out

Washington, Nov. 8 (AP)—Negotiations between Moscow and Washington over a variety of problems ranging from Japan to Turkey appeared today to be farther from success than officials here had hoped.

Here is the situation: Foreign Commissar Molotov has replied to an American proposal for an Allied Control Agency in Tokyo which would be subordinate to the Far Eastern Advisory Committee in Washington. There are strong indications that Molotov turned down this proposal and that Secretary of State Byrnes is not inclined to compromise the issue further.

The United States has laid a four-point program for revising control of the Dardanelles before the Turkish government. This would give Russia some advantages in the use of the straits which she does not now have. But it falls far short of Russia's reported desire for military bases on the vital link between the Black Sea and the Mediterranean.

A Russian-Turkish treaty of non-aggression and friendship which had run for many years expired yesterday following Soviet denunciation. Diplomatic officials say they fear that Russia may make a few psychological passes at Turkey in order to gain the right to set up Dardanelles bases on Turkish soil and also to win over certain territories in northeastern Turkey which the Russians have claimed.

The problem of the atomic bomb and peacetime uses of atomic energy becomes more acute between the two countries, in the opinion of diplomatic authorities, as the time approaches for conferences among President Truman and Prime Ministers Attlee of Britain and MacKenzie King of Canada. These talks will open Sunday aboard the Presidential yacht Potomac.

Byrnes declined at an afternoon news conference yesterday to comment on Molotov's speech in Moscow Tuesday saying that Russia would have atomic energy and that the secret of the bomb could not be kept. But the subject evidently was very much on Byrnes' mind because he went directly from the news conference to the White House to discuss with Mr. Truman preparations for the week-end talks.

In the case of Japan, Russia is reported by Allied diplomatic authorities here to be standing firm on her contention that Japan should be administered by a four power council in which the United States would have a dominant voice.

The United States on the other hand is reported by informed American officials to be holding out for an agency in Tokyo with about the powers which Russia suggests.

West Coast Police Look for Sedan

Two Men Might Have Missing Boy; Woman Gives Alarm

San Francisco, Nov. 8 (AP)—San Francisco police alerted all California points early today to be on the lookout for two men who may have missing Dickie Tom Saden, 3, with them in a late model sedan.

Inspector Joseph Donegan broadcast the alarm after Mrs. Mildred Beer of No. 3 Pinto avenue, Park Merced, reported a three or four-year-old boy resembling the turn Saden child had come to her door just before midnight, and was seized some time later by two men who forced their way into her home and knocked her down.

She told Donegan she heard a noise at her door and found the blue-suited youngster outside alone. She took him inside, fed him some milk and about an hour afterward called the police.

Three radio squad cars were dispatched immediately to Mrs. Beer's home in a new, suburban residential district in southwest San Francisco.

Five minutes after Donegan had received the woman's call he phoned her back to see if the police cars had arrived. During that interval Mrs. Beer said two men came to the door, claimed they were policemen and pushed their way inside. One struck her on the forehead, knocked her down and held her while the other picked up

Japanese Reign of Terror Against 25,000 Is Unfolded

Manila, Nov. 8 (AP)—The grim story of a Japanese reign of terror in Balangas Province where 25,000 men, women and children were brutally mistreated or murdered in seven months began to unfold today before the military commission hearing war crimes charges against Lt. Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita.

Survivors have said that the death toll of civilians was far greater in Balangas than it was in Manila. Populations of entire villages, these survivors have reported, were held at bay at the point of Japanese guns while the invaders burned down all their homes.

The prosecution's first Balangas witness was Lt. James P. Hooley, Jr., of San Francisco, a war crimes investigator officer, who said he learned that some 6,000 Japanese soldiers ran rampant over the Province from October 3, 1944, to May 1 of this year, committing acts of brutality on the grounds that the Japanese were guerrillas.

Local witnesses were a Filipino, Panglima Umali, from the province, who related that he was tied up with "about 700 men and I don't know the number of women but there were many," and tied off to a well about 300 feet wide and 60 feet deep.

One by one they were made to jump into the well, Umali said. "When my time came, about 200 already had jumped and after I jumped at least another 100 followed me."

Before Japanese soldiers covered the well with native bamboo shoots, Umali said, they threw in some rocks, "dropped a sewing machine," and fired in many shots.

Sometimes after midnight, the witness continued, some Filipino women sneaked to the well and lowered ropes up which six men escaped. Many of the women liberators were captured and never seen again.

The prosecution wound up its presentation of Manila testimony with introduction of a deposition, declaring that Red Cross pack-ages intended for American civilian internees were found looted in the headquarters of Yamashita who today observed his 60th birthday.

Stores Will Open At 10 A. M. Close 5 Except Friday

Friday Closing Hour Will Be 9 P. M.; Will Be Effective in Voluntary Period

Kingston retail stores will open at 10 a. m. beginning November 12 and will remain open Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday until 5 p. m. but will continue to remain open on Friday evening until 9 o'clock. This schedule of hours is being recommended by the Retail Merchants Committee of the Chamber of Commerce to the merchants of the city for a period beginning next Monday, November 12, and continuing through the voluntary period of compliance with the new Retail Minimum Wage Directive which becomes effective in the state next Monday.

Decision to adopt this schedule was reached by the Retail Committee at a meeting held Wednesday when a study was made of the cards which had been sent out to retail merchants in a poll to determine the consensus of opinion regarding adoption of a store hour policy.

Members of the committee meeting to review the cards were James E. Rowe, Thomas Gallagher, William O'Reilly, Harry Kagan, Eugene Fowler and Harry Ripley, Jr.

These proposed store hours will be tried out and used as a basis for operation during the three months voluntary compliance period but the committee felt that if after a trial during the next couple of months the hours did not prove satisfactory as suggested, then a change may be worked out. Retail merchants are urged to analyze their business closely so that they can make a decision as to whether or not they desire to alter the hours while the trial period still allows adjustment.

The merchants also decided that stores would be open from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. just prior to Christmas, those hours being observed from December 17 to December 22, inclusive. This is the week before Christmas. All stores are expected to be closed on Christmas eve.

These decisions were made as a result of the poll taken by the Chamber of Commerce and correspond to the opinion of the majority.

As a result of the poll taken 24 merchants voted to have the stores open 9 or 9:30 to 5 or 5:30 p. m. six days a week. Eighteen merchants voted to have the stores open one night a week with

Fairless Says if Wage Boost Is to Be Given, Prices Must Advance at Once

Murray Is Willing

C.I.O. Leader Says He Would Negotiate as Asked

Washington, Nov. 8 (AP)—President Truman's labor-management conference tolled through a bulging agenda today, but United States Steel Corporation held the capital's attention with a sharp rebuff to Mr. Truman's wage-price policy.

Through its president, Benjamin F. Fairless, the corporation notified Secretary of Labor Schwollenbach it would not resume wage talks until it had the government's answer on steel price increases.

Fairless dashed cold water, also, on Mr. Truman's proposal that employers grant wage increases now, then wait six months before seeking a price ceiling adjustment from O.P.A. if profits divided too sharply.

Fairless said if wages are boosted, additional steel price increases—beyond those already pending—will be needed and the corporation, he added, will insist on assurances from O.P.A. that they would be granted "simultaneously" with any wage hike.

Philip Murray, president of the C.I.O. and of the United Steel Workers, had accepted Schwollenbach's proposal that collective bargaining be resumed—in what Murray said was the spirit of Mr. Truman's wage-price speech—last Tuesday—under a special conciliator.

The labor secretary's office said Schwollenbach had received both Fairless's and Murray's letters, was considering them, and might issue a statement today. The letters were made public.

This new road-block in the administration's drive for labor peace loomed just as a minor but irritating snag was cleared away—the 30-hour tie-up of all bus and streetcar service in Washington.

Delegates could again ride the trolleys to the labor-management conference. If they choose, under a 14-day truce arranged between striking A.F. of L. teamsters and the Capital Transit Company. Full service was scheduled today while wage demands are negotiated.

House Members Take Action

On Capitol Hill, House members pursued these two legislative approaches to industrial peace:

The rules committee prepared to act on anti-strike legislation already approved by the military committee. The bill would deny collective bargaining rights to unions violating no-strike clauses, and make offending unions liable for civil damages.

An expenditures subcommittee began planning a compromise version of the so-called full employment bill.

But the 36 management-labor delegates, in corridor conversations, found a ripe topic in last night's clash between C.I.O. Chief Murray and President Tr. Mosher of the National Association of Manufacturers. The issue was whether to bring wage discussions onto the conference floor.

Murray succeeded in getting a wage resolution before the powerful executive committee, the first step. But Mosher issued a public statement last night declaring his flat opposition.

Mosher's reaction, taken to typify that of the management delegates generally, was regarded as a probable death-blow to Murray's plan.

Children Must Stop Damage, Chief Says

Chief of Police Charles Philmer said today that the police would no longer condone the actions of children in starting bonfires and destruction of property, especially in breaking down fences, and that children caught committing such acts would be arrested and dealt with according to law.

The police chief said that a number of complaints had been received of children breaking down fences on private properties, and in starting unnecessary fires.

The starting of unnecessary fires, Chief Philmer pointed out, is a violation of the law, while the destruction of property is an act of malicious mischief.

Chief Philmer urged that parents admonish their children to obey the law.

Hollywood, Nov. 8 (AP)—Gus Edwards, beloved Tin Pan Alley tunesmith and discoverer of countless stars of the stage and screen, is dead.

The 66-year-old songwriter, actor and producer died in his apartment last night after a long illness.

Writer of such songs as "School Days," "By the Light of the Silvery Moon," "In My Merry Oldsmobile," and "Swanee Song," Edwards discovered and helped along such outstanding performers as Eddie Cantor, George Jessel, Lila

Lee, Mae Murray, Eleanor Powell, Mervyn LeRoy, Bert Wheeler, Earl Carroll, Helen Menken, Hildegarde, Johnny Hines, Groucho Marx, the Duncan Sisters, Ray Bolger and Eddie Buzzell.

In the heyday of vaudeville, Gus Edwards was a headliner on the Orpheum and Keith Circuits. One of his last musical undertakings was the writing of songs and story for "The Star Maker," a movie based on Edwards' life and starring Bing Crosby.

Edwards was born in a small German town, came to this country as a boy, sang in restaurants and advanced to song boy in the theatre. After he became a song writer he produced several hits, among them "Gus Edwards' Messenger Boys."

$3,000 Legion Ball Show Is Bill Par Excellence

Only Headline Acts Are Engaged for Event in Auditorium on Monday Night

Rivalry between a policeman, whose hobby is arranging elaborate entertainment programs, and a professional showman assures a star studded bill for the 27th Annual Victory Ball of Kingston Post, 350, American Legion, this year.

It's Sergeant William T. Roedel of the Kingston Police Department against N. M. Abramson, manager of WOR Entertainment Bureau in preparing for the Monday, November 12, social affair in the Municipal Auditorium.

Jerry Wald's band is set for the concert and dance music. Roedel signed this ensemble while it was in the midst of a successful run at the Roseland Ballroom, New York City. But, the entertainment part of the program is incomplete, with Roedel and Abramson trying to outdo each other in selecting top-flight acts.

In their little game, the two are hitting the jackpot every time and the result should be a "program supreme" surpassing anything ever staged in the city of Kingston.

Not one act is being booked without a thorough check of entertainment publications that carry reviews on the best attractions in the show world.

Here are notices on some of the acts already under contract:

Sylvia & Christian—Dance team brought from Paris by Billy Rose for the opening of his Casa Manana. They've been featured at the Biltmore, Latin Quarter and Versailles in New York and Lowe's Capital Theatre in Washington.

Sylvia, former prima ballerina of the Royal Hungarian Opera stands on her toes in the catwalked hand of her partner's right hand. Something unmatched in show business.

Draws 18,000 in Week

Harvey Stone, sensational young comedian, who outdrew Sophie Tucker and other stars in a Dec. 1944 entertainment palace, jamming in an attendance of 18,000 for a week's engagement. Stone's a soldier find who made a reputation on U.S.O. tours. He's a favorite with Walter Winchell and Ed Sullivan who used him at Madison Square Garden where he stopped every other act on a Bond Show.

Ken Whitmer—"Professor of Musicology" who has been a favorite in all of the leading theatres of the country.

Sunny Rice—Ballet and tap dancer featured at New York Paramount and Biltmore Hotel.

Real Headliner

Beatrice Howell—Impressionist on Rudy Vallee program, also with Woody Herman, Harry James, Jack Teagarden, Tony Pastor and comedienne on Phil Spitalny's Hour of Charm for four seasons.

Jean Merrill—Metropolitan Opera Co. Singer featured on Horatio Gould's program, and starred in Rosalinda.

Bob Fuller Song Stylers—A girl and three boys. Harmony plus a sense of humor. Played the Miami Latin Quarter three seasons. Opened in New York Latin Quarter and held over there for long run. Played all major theatres and night clubs in the west.

Refined Show

When the Legion entertainment chairman and Abramson wind up with 12 acts it is a certainty that the Legion show will be overflowing with a variety of top flight attractions of refined calibre that are bound to please all who attend the ball.

The "you pick one, I'll pick one" process going on between Legionnaire Roedel and WOR's talent connoisseur will end in time for the announcement of a complete program on Friday. When the two have finished, they will have spent approximately $3,000 in building up the show.

Big Ticket Demand

As soon as entertainment seekers see the complete bill, there likely will be a rush for tickets. Custodian Lester Barth will be able to take care of orders at the Legion Memorial Building on a "first come first served" basis. Those who run the risk of waiting to buy tickets at the door may find themselves out of luck, he says.

A. T. Young, ticket chairman, reported a sell-out of patron tickets weeks ago, more than 400 having been purchased after the announcement that Jerry Wald's band would play for the ball.

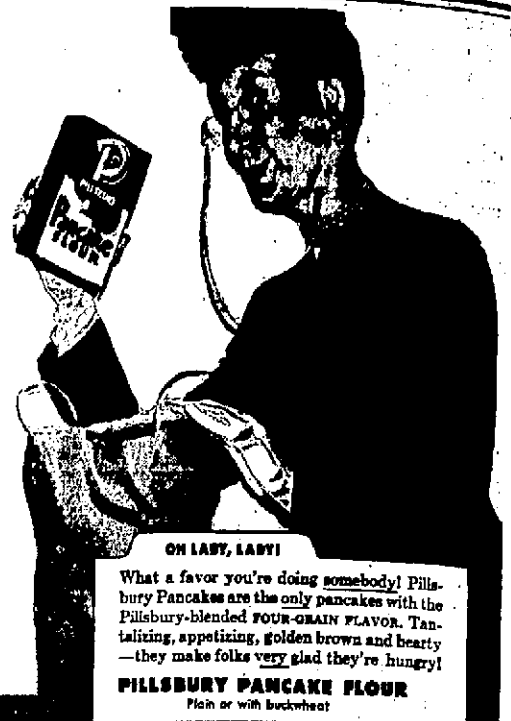

Praises Jerry Wald

Billboard says of Wald: "The handsome little leader is a capable performer with poise and know-how that you'll find around the big circuit today. . . . He gives the customers what they want, what they came for and that's an excellent all-round dance tempo. . . . The orchestra handles its arrangements as though they get a kick out of playing them, also with top finesse. . . . There are few if any singers when they're in action. . . . Singer Dick Merrick and thrush Kay Allen both know their job."

The doors of the auditorium will open at 7:15, the concert begins at 8:30, and after the show and 11 o'clock ceremony in memory of deceased heroes music for dancing will continue until 1:30 a. m.

Ship Suffers Damage

London, Nov. 8 (AP)—The 8,000-ton American liberty ship Arthur Riggs suffered damages to her hull last night in a collision with the 4,500-ton British ship Egton off Goodwin Sands off the southeast coast of England. The Riggs anchored near Deal for inspection of the damage. The Egton drifted off after the collision and her whereabouts remained uncertain, but it was presumed she would put into a nearby port.

HOUSES TO SAVE LIVES
Better housing in Belfast, Northern Ireland, will save lives, the chairman of the city's Maternity and Child Welfare Committee believes. Answering a criticism of present conditions, he said: "When 15,000 to 20,000 houses are erected in Belfast, I will give an undertaking that the death rate amongst children will go down."

Captain Streck Dies
Freeport, N. Y., Nov. 8 (AP) — Capt. Louis Streck, Jr., 57, chief of the Nassau County Police Department Bureau of Criminal Identification and former president of the National Identification Association, died yesterday. A native of New York, he joined the county police department in 1925. During the first World War, he served as identification expert for the Navy, passing upon more than 60,000 sets of fingerprints.

The greatest wartime food production decreases were in the occupied areas of Soviet Russia, China, and the Dutch East Indies.

Saratoga Goes Back to Use of Phonetic System

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Nov. 8 — This city's schoolchildren are going back to the oldtime phonetic system of learning to read and write.

Claude Van Wic, Saratoga schools superintendent, said yesterday that teachers had complained for some time that the "word family" system—memorizing the sound of words rather than individual letters—resulted in a poor grasp of spelling and reading among pupils.

They suggested a return to the phonetic system of learning the sounds of letters, Van Wic said, and he announced the changeover at a board of education meeting earlier this week.

In Albany, Dr. William E. Young, director of elementary education in the State Education Department, commented: "We all agree that children need some training in phonetics, but we believe that children should have a sight vocabulary before phonetics are given."

Young said the "word family" system "really is a part of any good phonetics system—they go together."

"First the child should be trained to read, and to get satisfaction from reading. This is done by teaching him approximately 100 words that he recognizes on sight. Then he should be trained in phonetics so that he will be able to grasp words independently."

Young said that before the 1920's there was an "excessive emphasis on phonetics in the primary grades, and too little on meaning and thought."

"During the 20's and 30's there was a swing away from phonetics altogether, in favor of teaching children to grasp sentences or ideas. Now, however, we realize that children do need a certain minimum of phonetics."

Girl Says Hammer Blows Were Given

Ambler, Pa., Nov. 8 (AP)—Justine Hume, 18-year-old Stamford, Conn., girl, told Upper Dublin Township police today she was struck on the head a half dozen times with a hammer wielded by a passing motorist last night and knocked unconscious as she waited for a Philadelphia-bound bus on a street corner.

The girl was found lying unconscious by the roadside and taken to Abington Memorial Hospital where several stitches were made to close five deep gashes in her scalp, police said.
Miss Hume, a student at the School of Horticulture for Women here, said she was waiting for the bus when a sedan "drove up so close I thought it would knock me down."
"Something hit me—I thought it was the side mirror on the car," she recounted. "Then I saw a man leaning out of the window with a horrible leer on his face. He had a big hammer in his hand. I was so scared I just froze. The hammer seemed to pass before my face and then it came down on my head with an awful crash. x x x As I sank to my knees he hit me four or five times more."

No More Dominos
Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 8 (AP)—Cambridge police were under orders today to "stop playing dominos." The directive was issued by Chief Timothy F. Leahy after he said he had received reports that police vehicles had been slow in responding to calls. He said an investigation determined that "they (the policemen) are rambling around the building, playing dominos or listening to the radio."

Woman, 70, Found Dead This Morning

Mrs. Alice Avery Succumbs in Esopus Ave. Home

Mrs. Alice Avery, approximately 70 years old, was found dead in her home, 9 Esopus avenue, town of Ulster, by neighbors early this morning. Coroner Ernest A. Kelly, after an investigation, issued a verdict of death due to a heart attack.

The coroner said that it was evident that Mrs. Avery, who resides alone, had thrown herself down on her bed during the afternoon and was suddenly stricken. She was fully dressed when found.

No lights were seen in the house last night, and this morning neighbors, finding the kitchen door wide open, entered the house.

Mrs. Avery had been living in the house for approximately nine months.

Poison 1080 Was Discovered By Poles Seeking New Gas

By HARRISON HUMPHRIES
Washington, Nov. 7 (AP)—The search for a deadly poison gas by Polish chemists led to discovery of 1080, the new wonder rat poison.

In their feverish search for weapons to combat the threatening Germans, the Polish chemists accidentally found a poisonous compound containing fluorine.

The work of developing the substance as a military weapon was suddenly ended when the Germans made their lightning conquest of Poland.

So far as is known, the secret of the new poison vanished as far as the Germans were concerned when they took over the country. It reached England, however, in the hands of a Polish refugee scientist who communicated the formula to the Allies. This information in turn was cabled to the United States.

U. S. imports of rat poison had been heavily reduced because of the war. Search for a new one was being pushed by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service with the help of grants from the Office of Scientific Research and Development (O.S.R.D.).

Dr. Ray Treichler, then a research chemist for the Fish and Wildlife Service, had appealed to all United States chemical concerns for samples of chemicals which had shown themselves to be toxic.

Hundreds of such chemicals had been tested on thousands of laboratory rats. While poisonous substances were found, none had been located which had all the virtues of a good rodenticide (rat poison). A good poison must be highly toxic, stable, dependable and acceptable to rats and other rodents. In a conference between Dr. Treichler and Dr. Walter Krieger of the National Defense Research Council, a number of new formulas were selected for trial. One of them was a compound related to the substance which had been discovered in Poland.

More laboratory tests were arranged, and last 1,000 arrived.

The substance was a fluorocarbon derivative. Although a deadly in small quantities, it was too volatile and dangerous to handle. Chemists put their heads together and decided to make "salt" of it.

Small quantities of the salt, sodium fluoracetate, were sent to the Patuxent, Md., laboratories of the Fish and Wildlife Service.

The scientists were amazed. Tiny amounts killed rats more quickly than any of the commonly used rodenticides except strychnine. It was stable and did not lose its toxicity even when mixed with other substances. And, almost miraculously, rats seemed to like it. When given a choice between pure water and water poisoned with the new chemical, rats chose the latter.

So, 1080 came into being. Hushed plans were made for wide field testing. A grant was obtained from O.S.R.D. for the purchase of 1,000 pounds of 1080. A chemical concern was commissioned to make it.

When it arrived it was parcelled out to the rodent control operators of the Fish and Wildlife Service, the Public Health Service, the Army and Navy for further testing under all possible conditions. The results were even more dramatic than the chemists had hoped. Poison 1080 was it.

Some Breeze

Paul, Idaho, Nov. 8 (AP)—After hiring a construction firm to level off a large section of his farm, farmer R. G. Dejong went to work with a tractor, preparing the land for cultivation.

A high wind came up, stirred up a dust storm and Dejong became lost, unable to recognize his own farm. He finally drove the tractor into a wire fence and followed the fence line home.

Fishy Yarn

San Francisco, Nov. 8 (AP)—About 18 months ago 45 kegs containing specimens of South Pacific fish were loaded aboard a ship at New Caledonia consigned to Wilbur Chapman, curator of fish at the California Academy of Sciences.

Chapman, who had caught the fish, returned home and yesterday received a call from a rancher at Rockaway Point, south of San Francisco, reporting the finding on the beach, of one of the kegs bearing Chapman's address.

The specimens were undamaged but the way by which they reached the beach remains a mystery.

Explosive Find

Chicago, Nov. 8 (AP)—Dickie Butzen, 31, and Donald Biedermann, 32, unearthed a navy box in the "fox-hole" they dug in a vacant lot as they played a war game. They lugged the box home and his mother, Lucille, after taking one look at it, called police. Detectives James Garvey and Frank Brady of the bomb squad counted out 50 sticks of dynamite.

The boys recalled they had dropped the box a few times. Police said the dynamite was damp, but it would have exploded had it been properly detonated.

Associated Press Foreign Editor Says Occupation Will Take From Three to Four Years

short occupation emphasize that one which extends beyond five years will bring new dangers. Either the Japanese will become completely dependent on the Americans or resentment against alien rule will have time to flower into open rebellion.

Don't Understand Freedoms

Changes decreed by MacArthur have bestowed on the Japanese people freedoms they do not yet fully understand how to use, producing a state of flux from which vast changes in the Japanese way of life inevitably must come. The nature of these changes obviously depend on the kind of control exercised by the victorious powers.

It is anticipated that British, Chinese and Soviet units may be added to the occupation armies within a reasonable time, but the Japanese especially hope that the final word will remain with the United States.

For that reason, there is anxious study here of dispatches from Washington and Moscow reporting meeting of the Allied Advisory Commission, which Russia has not yet joined, and negotiations concerning the four-power Control Council in Japan which Russia has advocated.

The Japanese dread any increase in Russia's share of the control of their fate. The cabinet ministers decline to discuss Russia for publication, but talk with Japanese in high places make their fears manifest.

Stories of Russian excesses in northern Korea have wide currency among Japanese leaders, who profess to fear similar developments if there should be a territorial division of Japan among the Allies after the others join the Americans, and if the Russians for instance should be allotted the northern island of Hokkaido, which is in American hands.

Among Americans here there is the same disagreement and debate as at home concerning Russia's new role in world affairs and the difference between her concept of democracy and the American or British brands. Some express confidence that sufficient understanding can be reached to permit completion of the American-style democratization program already well advanced under MacArthur. The opposing view is that Russia wants to see Japan Sovietized. Some speak of the danger that the docile Japanese people might again become regimented for warlike purposes under Russian domination.

MacArthur is known to believe that it would be a great thing for the world if Japan could be Christianized, although he feels that this would be difficult because of Japanese materialism and alcoholism. But with the destruction of militarism, its strong spiritual weapon, the national Shinto cult, has suffered a drastic loss of confidence.

No Return Plans
MacArthur has no present plans for returning to the United States. He is known to regard his responsibility for directing the vast program of democratic changes he has dictated to the Japanese government as too onerous to be delegated.

He regards the duty entrusted to him as of the greatest importance to the future of the United States. He is keenly aware of the vast amount of discussion pro and con of the problems of Japan by the press and public in America. Some of his officers feel there is too much "back seat driving," much of it uninformed and unfair; that it tends to force the general's hand in some phases of the program which should not be rushed and that while the overall policy must come from Washington, the immediate means, methods and timing should be left to the commander on the spot.

MacArthur occupies a place unprecedented in American history. Seventy-five million utterly beaten, bewildered and fearful Japanese feel their fate is in his hands. From his well appointed offices on the sixth floor of the Dai Ichi building overlooking the pine-fringed, walled moat enclosing the fallen Emperor's palace, he issues decrees which are setting the course of Japanese life for generations to come. Dai Ichi means number one, or first (the building belongs to The First Mutual Life Insurance Co.) and this huge granite structure, which would spread over the average New York city block, definitely has become the number one edifice in Japan, replacing the ruined palaces hidden in the evergreen groves across the moat.

The World Today

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

A fellow commuter this morning turned from the headlines in his newspaper and asked me in a pre-dawn, sepulchral tones:

"Well, when will the next war come—in about five years?"

I wasn't feeling so good myself, because the train was late but that pessimistic query put me on the alert. One doesn't (or at least shouldn't) talk about world wars in these atomic-bomb days without pausing to think. Anyway, my reply was that while there are very real dangers to be overcome, there is no sound reason why these shouldn't be met successfully. I believe that, too.

Certainly there is cause for anxiety, but there's nothing to cause surprise. The international difficulties are mild compared with what might have developed from such a cataclysm as that through which our poor old globe has just passed. Not only is the world physically torn in many places, but its whole politico-economic structure is undergoing vast change.

Great powers—Germany, Italy, Japan—have disappeared and there is an inevitable realignment of spheres of influence which are causing heart burnings. British Foreign Secretary Bevin, speaking in the House of Commons yesterday, declared that the great difficulty in achieving international cooperation rests in "whether or not you can entirely obliterate what are called spheres of influence and power politics." He added:

"Sometimes in these negotiations—I make the confession—power politics seems to me to be naked and unashamed."

The quickest way to overcome this evil is the employment of frankness among nations, and Bevin sounded this note when he appealed to the great powers to "really put the cards on the table face upwards." While naming no names, the foreign minister hinted that Britain was suspicious of Russia's territorial demands. He put it this way:

"You cannot help being a little bit suspicious if a great power wants to go right across the throat of the British Commonwealth."

That's putting the cards on the table face upwards. And we've had quite a lot of cards faced so far this week. Russian Foreign Minister Molotov started it in his Moscow address Tuesday, when he condemned the tendency towards formation of a bloc of western European powers, and asked that all the secrets in connection with the manufacture of the atomic bomb be placed at Russia's disposal.

Former Prime Minister Winston Churchill also turned up some cards in the House of Commons debate on foreign affairs yesterday. The old maestro did a colorful job of blunt talking, especially when he said Russia wouldn't share the secrets of the atomic bomb if she alone had them, and urged Prime Minister Attlee not to press America during the forthcoming conference in Washington to divulge details.

Both Churchill and Bevin subscribed to President Truman's 12-point foreign policy, and one of the most striking displays of cards came when Churchill said: "We (Britain) should make clear to the United States that we will march at their side in the cause President Truman has defined. This is our chance of survival and may be even of safety and, with safety, a vast extension of prosperity."

50 to 100 Seabees Killed by Explosion

San Pedro, Calif., Nov. 8 (AP)—Survivors of last month's typhoon at Orinawa, arriving here from Manila, told reporters that 50 of the 100 Seabees and sailors were killed when they built a fire to dry their clothes on an abandoned Jap ammunition dump October 10. Four members of the crew of the Liberty ship Oulahan, wrecked in the typhoon, said the fire caused an explosion that blew many high into the air.
Survivors of the tropical storm were returned here on the S.S. Howell Lykes. They comprised the crews of the Victory ships Jack Slinger, Oulahan and Brookholst Livingston.

Six Fliers Die In Elmira Crash

'Wings of Victory' Tour
Runs Into Tragedy; on Way to Stewart

Elmira, N. Y., Nov. 8 (AP)—Six Army fliers were killed today when two planes collided over Chemung county airport.

Airport officials said the planes were from the Treasury Department's "Wings of Victory" armada.

The dead were not immediately identified.

Five of the men were in a B-25 Bomber and the other was flying a P-47 Thunderbolt.

Officials said the planes had just taken off and were about 100 feet off the ground when the wing tips collided.

Both planes burst into flames and crashed.

The fliers were en route to Stewart Field, near West Point, after an 8th Victory Loan trip. They had made appearances in Rochester and Buffalo. They took off from Mitchell Field.

KEN WHITMER

Here are three of the headliners on the star-studded program for the American Legion's 27th Annual Victory Ball in the municipal auditorium, Monday night. Dick Merrick is the popular singer with Jerry Wald's band. Beatrice Howell will come to Kingston direct from the Capitol Theatre in New York city where she had an 11-week run. Phil Spitalny's orchestra featured her for four seasons. Ken Whitmer, "professor of musicology," is in demand in leading theatres all over the country.

U. S. Allocates 50 Per Cent More Food

Washington, Nov. 8 (AP)—This country has allocated liberated areas of Europe and French North Africa about 50 per cent more food for the October-December period than was available to them in the previous quarter.

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson told his news conference today nearly 4,000,000 tons would be marked for this form of export.

Anderson said he hoped it would be possible to maintain this increased level of allocations for food desolated areas during the first quarter of 1946.

"But we are not necessarily promising it," he said.

This country, the Secretary said, will have ample supplies to keep home consumption at present levels.

But he said that while meat supplies are improving, it may not be possible to end meat rationing until "after December."

Anderson previously had said he hoped to end rationing of food fats and oils—butter, margarine, lard and shortening—by the end of this year.

But he said today it now appears rationing of fats and oils may have to be continued during the first six months of 1946. The reason: 1945 domestic production of food fats is now estimated to be about 250,000,000 pounds short of expectations.

Anderson said also he saw little hope for any material improvement in domestic sugar supplies before 1947. Some form of rationing, he predicted, will be necessary through next year.

Violation Is Charged

Detroit, Nov. 8 (AP)—The C.I.O. United Auto Workers announced today a charge of violating the Wagner Act would be filed against General Motors Corp. Walter P. Reuther, vice president of the U.A.W.-C.I.O., said he would file the charge personally at the Detroit office of the National Labor Relations office this afternoon. The charges ensued, Reuther said, from the corporation's "refusal to bargain collectively" with the union over the latter's 30 per cent wage increase demand.

Research Plot Reported

London, Nov. 8 (AP)—The United Nations War Crimes Commission said today German officials and industrialists realized in 1934 that the war was lost and plotted to continue research on secret weapons and to seek huge foreign loans to rebuild their country. A commission report said Nazi party members who escaped punishment were instructed to "go underground as technical experts" for various plants.

The Eastern Hemisphere to date has produced more than 10 billion barrels of oil.

Culjak Gets 15 Days For Starting Fire

Angelo Culjak, 17, of 68 Newkirk avenue, celebrated the election Tuesday night by throwing a lighted railroad flare among some empty boxes on the loading platform of the Katz junk yard at Reuther, vice president of the U.A.W.-C.I.O., said he would file the charge personally at the Detroit office of the National Labor Relations office this afternoon. The charges ensued, Reuther said, from the corporation's "refusal to bargain collectively" with the union over the latter's 30 per cent wage increase demand.

This morning Judge Matthew V. Cahill taking into consideration the seriousness of the act sentenced Culjak to serve 15 days in the county jail. The charge on which he was held was disorderly conduct.

The youth was arrested by Chief of Police Charles Phinney who had investigated the fire and its cause. The chief said that Culjak waited at the junk yard until the firemen arrived.

EVERY BUBBLE WASHES DOUBLE

No Place to Live

Tuckahoe, N. Y., Nov. 8 (AP)—A homeless school superintendent packed the family bugs today to move out of three classrooms in Bronxville High School. He had no place to go. John C. Goff, discharged navy veteran, returned October 1 to find his job waiting but his house occupied. The tenant refused to move until December 1. Goff and his wife stayed with friends for more than a month and then, feeling "that their welcome had worn out," moved bag and baggage into the school building. Their "suite" consisted of the Home Economics room.

Body Is Not Identified

The body of the man found floating in the Rondout creek at the Hitebrant shipyard as Connell's early Sunday still remains unidentified. It was said this noon by Coroner Ernest A. Kelly, who is holding the body in an effort to have it identified. Today several people viewed the body, the coroner said, but none were able to identify it.

Both Parties Are Pleased at Outcome Of 1945 Elections

Gubernatorial Claims Are Made; All but One Amendment Is Passed

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 8 (AP)—Republican and Democratic state chairmen both staked 1946 gubernatorial victory claims for their parties on the basis of yesterday's election results, which wound up with approval of all but one of six proposed constitutional amendments. Although the leaders seized upon mayoral returns to buttress their predictions, they said nothing about the amendments, all of which were endorsed by the Republicans and four of which were opposed by the Democrats. Paradoxically, Amendment No. 6, proposing to give war veterans service job preference, which had bipartisan backing, barely achieved approval. Republican Chairman Glen R. Bedenkapp saw in the results of the state's mayoral contests not only a G.O.P. triumph next year but a definite loss of Democratic and American Labor party strength. Democratic Chairman Paul E. Fitzpatrick, after analyzing the selfsame returns, said they argued victory for his party 12 months hence and political oblivion for Governor Dewey. Dewey himself said nothing. Amendment No. 1, which the governor wanted approved, was defeated. It would have required the joint election of a governor and lieutenant governor. But its companion piece, Amendment No. 2, pulled through. This bars a special election to fill a vacancy in the office of lieutenant governor. Amendment No. 3, giving war veterans preference in civil service appointments and promotions, was approved by the last two legislatures, both Republican-controlled, with the unanimous support of the Democratic minority. The other approved amendments would permit splitting townships to create Senate or Assembly districts, liberalize voting requirements in non-personal registration districts and enable county governing bodies to petition the Legislature, over executive veto, for enactment of special local laws. Voters also overwhelmingly endorsed a proposition to increase the limit of the annual state subsidy for public housing aid from $5,000,000 to $6,250,000.

New Supervisors Take Office on January 1

To correct a misunderstanding it should be noted that when the Board of Supervisors meet Monday evening for the start of their annual session the board will be composed of members who have been serving for the two-year term which ends December 31st. Newly-elected supervisors will not take office until January 1, 1946.

BLANK COMPANY OPENS NEW OFFICES

The secretary to the head of a firm writes me: "Our new offices soon will be opened in a new building. We would like to know if it is customary to give an 'office warming' and if so, should anything be served? Please tell me what type of invitation or announcement should be sent."

It is not at all unusual to open the new offices with a reception. Sometimes this is very elaborate; sometimes it means merely having the offices open for inspection. Usually cigars and cigarettes are proffered. Often a quite elaborate collation is served. A typical invitation would be:

The John Blank Company requests the pleasure of your company at the opening of their new offices 25 Fairhaven Road from 3 to 7 o'clock Monday, November 17, 1943

Do What the Others Do

Dear Mrs. Post: I have been elected to an office in an organization in which capacity I shall be expected to pay a good many visits. I would like to use the proper cards. In this particular organization, the women are all known by their first names and are not associated with their husbands' names. For example, I am known as Mrs. Jane Blank and not Mrs. Harold Blank. Will it be permissible to have cards made up with "Mrs. Jane Blank" as long as my office in the organization is included also?

Answer: It always is best to do as the others do. You then can have other cards engraved: "Mrs. Harold Blank" or "Mr. and Mrs. Harold Blank" for your personal use at home.

Shower for Future Daughter-in-Law

Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to know whether it would be proper for me to give my son's fiancée a shower?

Answer: Supposedly no and yet I know of no real reason why you may not do so, especially if she is a stranger and if the people you ask are your intimate friends and the presents very trifling.

Wedding Anniversary

Dear Mrs. Post: My father died almost a year ago. Is there anything we children can do in honor of Mother's silver wedding anniversary?

Answer: I'm sorry, but no.

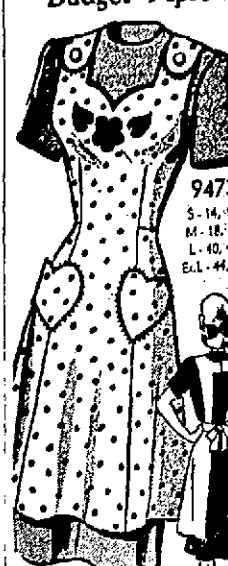

What hour is most suitable for a shower? Send for Mrs. Post's leaflet, "Let's Give a Shower," in care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y., and enclose a three-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Committee Named To Plan Christmas Program in City

A Christmas Observance Committee has been named numbering several prominent citizens of the city to take up the matter of erection of a large 50-foot Community Christmas tree in some central part of the city where it will be best observed by visitors to Kingston.

On the committee is Robert Case, chairman, the Very Rev. Martin J. Drury, the Rev. Frank L. Gollnick, James L. Rowe, Thomas Gallagher, William O'Reilly, Harry Rigby, Jr., and L. E. Watrous.

This committee will select a spot for erection of the community tree and the Chamber of Commerce will be asked to financially sponsor the observance of a community good will program. The Kingston High School A Cappella Choir will be invited to provide Christmas music. Co-operation of the city officials will be sought to locate the tree in a conspicuous place where it may be viewed by the greatest number of transient visitors.

Complete arrangements will be made by the committee during the week of November 12 and an announcement will then be made concerning final arrangements and the dates for programs.

Auto Dealers Concerned Over Threatened Cut

Washington, Nov. 8 (AP) — The nation's auto dealers "are gravely concerned" over a threatened O.P.A. cut in their established trade discount, a spokesman for the group declared today. He urged that it remain at its present level.

The appeal came from W. L. Mallon, president of the National Automobile Dealers Association, and was made to the House Small Business Committee. It is trying to determine if the O.P.A. proposal is "fair and equitable."

The hearing room was crowded to capacity by scores of auto dealers and Congressmen.

Mallon declared the discount is a "long-established mark" up which dealers are allowed by manufacturers on new cars.

Prices of new cars are set at the factories, dealers then are given certain discounts which average, Mallon said, about 24 per cent on each car.

He said the discount represents the gross profit before any expenses.

"This 24 per cent gross profit may sound generous at first sight," Mallon said, "but the net profit that results after expenses are paid is small—somewhere between one and two per cent."

United States Steel Rejects Policy

United States Steel's effort to have the national wage issue considered by the A.F.L. President, William Green, already had declared against its discussion, leaving the C.I.O. apparently outvoted in the executive committee and on the floor.

Otherwise the conference—split into a half-dozen closed-door committee sessions—worked on into its third day without any immediate report of agreement on any of the questions.

Sidney Hillman, president of the C.I.O. Amalgamated Clothing Workers, told newsmen, however, that the talks were "proceeding amicably—there's been no rough talk."

FORTUNE IN DIAMONDS—Capt. Roy Katz of Brooklyn looks over part of diamonds worth approximately $35,000. The diamonds, stored in thermos bottles, were found in the Milne Trust Company's vaults in Tokyo.

CORK YOUTH GOES WILD—The younger generation is getting out of hand in Cork, Eire, the oldsters complain. They have asked for more police to stop singing and shouting in the streets until after midnight. Juvenile crime is on the increase and destruction of property goes on, it is alleged. Even lifebuoys and dock chains are removed and destroyed.

Russians Withdraw Forces From Ports

chief, and Yeh-Ching-Yin, commander of the Eighth Army.

Objections Are Made
They objected to the landing of American forces at Chefoo, at the head of the Shantung peninsula; the "invading" of Chinwangtao; the sealing of the Eighth route army office in Tientsin; the strafing of the populace at Antschi, south of Talyuan in Shansi province, and the entry of American troops into the Hopei, Honan and Anhwei province liberated areas.

The Central Government spokesman, in admitting the battlefield reverse, said that two of the government's top field commanders had been captured by the victorious Red columns.

The Kuomintang spokesman claimed that after the two generals were captured, in the fighting along the Peiping-Hankow Railroad north of Tientsin in southern Hopei province, the bulk of the government troops withdrew to the south awaiting orders from Chungking.

Earlier, however, the Communists said that 70,000 Nationalist troops were involved and that the bulk were captured after their generals—Ma Fah Wu, commander of the 41st Army, and Kuo Shu Hsun, commander of the Eighth Army—were taken. The government heard that General Wu committed suicide.

If the Kuomintang troops made their escape southward they would have had to bypass Tientsin, the rail junction town, which the Communist forces captured October 25.

Taken Unawares
The spokesman asserted that the government troops which had moved from the south into the civil war zone "were taken unawares and were unable to concentrate in time to ward off the assault" by tens of thousands of Communist soldiers.

Fighting flared in other North China provinces, with the government semi-officially claiming successes in northern Honan and southern Honan and northern Hopei.

Secretary of State Byrnes' announcement in Washington that the Marines would be withdrawn from China, confirmed Tuesday's "unofficial report" from Tientsin that the mission in the disputed area was complete and that Americans would be pulled out within a month.

Byrnes did not say when the Marines would be relieved of their task of helping with the disarmament of Japanese and maintaining peace, an increasingly delicate job.

Andersson, Haegg Are Declared Pros By Swedish A.A.

Stockholm, Nov. 8 (AP)—Arne Andersson and Gunder Haegg, world-record holding Swedish runners, and 13 other top-ranking Swedish track stars, were declared professionals today by the Swedish Athletic Association, the newspaper Expressen said.

There was no official announcement as yet from the association, which has been conducting a sweeping investigation into the entire Swedish track setup.

Earlier the association announced a finding that payments of fees to top Swedish track stars by leading sports clubs constituted a breach of amateur regulations and indicated there would be disciplinary measures against both clubs and performers. The association did not name the individuals involved, and had announced it would not do so until completion of the nationwide inquiry.

A finding that Andersson is professional would cancel his projected trip to the United States for the indoor season this winter.

$25,000 Frisco Open On Lakeside Course

San Francisco, Nov. 8 (AP)—The $25,000 San Francisco Open golf tournament scheduled for January 10 to 13 will be played over the tough Lakeside course of the San Francisco Olympic Club.

The course is considered an outstanding test of golf, and President Russ Newland of the California Golf Writers' Association said that golf stars Byron Nelson, Ben Hogan and Sam Snead, all entered, had expressed the wish that the winter season's richest event be played there.

Robinson, Piro Are Missing From Lineup

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 8 (AP)—The Syracuse backfield is missing halfback Roger Robinson and fullback Johnny Piro as it preps for the Colgate game November 17.

Robinson and Piro were injured in the Penn State game and have not yet been able to rejoin the squad. Meanwhile, George Booth, Binghamton, and Marvin Cohen, Brooklyn, are filling the two spots.

Coch Ose Solem ran his first and second string Orange elevens through a regulation-type game yesterday. The reserves showed surprising power and generally outplayed the varsity.

Needs Actual Competition in Preparation for Joe Louis in Title Bout

By SKIPPER PATRICK

Kansas City, Nov. 8 (AP)—Billy Conn, the fancy boxing Irishman from Pittsburgh, says he is convinced that exhibition fighting is a "heck of a poor way" to get in condition for his championship bout with heavyweight king Joe Louis next June.

That's why, he said after a 3-round appearance here last night, he is quitting "show off" stuff in favor of serious training for a return engagement with the Brown Bomber.

"You can tell the world I'm through with exhibitions," the handsome ex-Army corporal declared. He had just trudged through a slow practice session with Bearcat Jones, a sparring specialist from Pittsburgh.

"Fans don't realize it's only an exhibition," Conn explained. "They expect me to show the same boxing skill I used to show in 1941 when I boxed rings around Louis for 12 rounds before I got careless."

Overweight and not up to his usual speed, Conn threw a few fast hooks at the Bearcat in the last minute of the exhibition, but he admitted that he had a "long way to go" before he's ready for Louis.

"I'm going to spend some time on road work at Hot Springs, Ark.," Conn said, "then I'm going to return to Pittsburgh and start making it with good sparring partners. I'm certain I can lick Louis this time—I don't plan to spoil my chances running around the country showing off."

Conn was an added attraction to a fight card that featured a couple of three round knockouts in scheduled 10-rounders by heavyweights Lee Savold, Des Moines, Ia., and Pat Comiskey, Jersey City.

The veteran Savold, 199, bounced rights and lefts off the chin of Sunny Jim Williams, 185, who claims Toledo, O., as light headquarters, before putting his lighter foe to sleep with a sharp right hand to the button. Williams hit the canvas four times before he stayed put.

Comiskey, 219, made a punching bag of Dan Merrill, 200, Cleveland, sending the former national amateur champion down five times before a hard right put him to sleep.

Powers, Jaso Are Drilling as Guards

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 8 (AP)—The Cornell football squad runs through a heavy scrimmage today, the final stiff drill before Saturday's home game with a rested but largely rebuilt Colgate eleven.

Coch Ed McKeever, juggling his lineup, started Jack Powers, Montclair, N. J., and John Jaso, Donora, Pa., at the first string guard posts in yesterday's practice session.

$600,000 for Charity Expected at Jamaica

New York, Nov. 8 (AP)—The eight-day victory meeting that opened at Jamaica yesterday is expected to produce about $600,000 for charity, boosting the total for the season from the five New York tracks to more than $1,200,000.

With similar receipts from other tracks in the nation expected to top $5,000,000 for 1945, the four-year total from racing would exceed $22,000,000.

Kansas City—Billy Conn, 194, Pittsburgh, boxed Bearcat Jones, 190, Pittsburgh (three-round exhibition). Lee Savold, 199, Des Moines, knocked out Sunny Jim Williams, 185, Toledo, 3. Pat Comiskey, 219, Patterson, N. J., knocked out Dan Merrill, 200, Cleveland, 3.

Arthur J. Kaplan Named Manager of Union-Fern Store

ARTHUR J. KAPLAN

Arthur J. Kaplan, native of Kingston, has been appointed manager of the Union-Fern store to open at 328 Wall street on or about November 15.

Mr. Kaplan is the son of the late Morris Kaplan of Kingston and was associated with his father in the retail furniture business in this city for a number of years. He also ran a retail liquor store in Kingston.

On the outbreak of the war he enlisted in the Army and was assigned to the Army Air Forces.

For the past few months he has been associated with the Union-Fern organization at its executive offices in Troy.

He is a member of the American Legion. Mr. Kaplan's brother, Max Kaplan, is chief of the Income Tax Department of Ulster county and surrounding districts. At present, he resides in Albany, but plans to move back to Kingston in the near future.

MONTY SEES OLD HOME

British Field Marshal Sir Bernard Montgomery, saw his old home from the air, but could not visit it without risking arrest, so he flew on to receive the freedom of the city of Londonderry, Northern Ireland. The old home is at Moyville in County Donegal, Eire. As he was in British uniform, the Field Marshal could not cross the border into Eire without risk.

4-H Achievement Day in Auditorium Here, on Friday

Friday night, starting at 7:30, members of all near Kingston 4-H Clubs and school Victory Garden Clubs, will celebrate Achievement Night at the Municipal Auditorium.

This will be the first such gathering here since 1941, the war having made it necessary to suspend such activities during the intervening years.

E. E. Bower, 4-H agent, expects an attendance of about 500 members at the gathering Friday night. Before the war achievement day activities were in charge of the older 4-H members, but very few of these have returned home yet from service with the armed forces. There are about 60 clubs in this area.

Arm chevrons will be awarded Friday night to all members who have completed their year's work and have filed with Mr. Bower a written report detailing what they have done.

In all there are about 2,000 4-H club members in Ulster county and for six years the county has been credited with the highest percentage of completed projects of any county in New York state. In 1944 the report showed 94.5 per cent of projects completed.

Program for Friday night includes: Welcome by Mayor William E. Edmonds; address by Pratt Police chairman of the 4-H Department of the Farm and Home Bureau and 4-H Club Association; Fred Van Deusen of Kingston will again entertain with feats of magic; Principal Clarence L. Dumm of the high school will show movies, "Youth of Tomorrow" and Frank Finley of the Kingston Trust Co. will make the achievement awards. Mr. Finley will represent Fred C. Terwilliger of Walkkill, "key banker" for Ulster county.

Achievement night for the Saugerties area was held there on October 26 and similar meetings for the Kerhonkson and Walkkill areas will be held later.

TAKE advantage of a gently sloping hill and the valley view it afforded, Richard J. Neutra, A.I.A., of Los Angeles, planned a climbing cottage. Bedrooms were set at a lower level than the living quarters, and the garage sat farther down. Exterior is of redwood siding. The frameless glass are in, in a window style, into the building chassis itself and operated by special crank handles which reach through structural posts. Neutra was assisted, especially in design of the electrical kitchen, by the housewife-buyer. This cottage cost $46,000, for a middle-aged couple with two sons.

Portland, Me., Nov. 8 (AP)—Four classic waves never observed before were recorded on seismographs set up to test the tripartite nature of the first atomic blast in New Mexico, according to a physicist on the Harvard College Observatory staff. How to Join the Victory Legion

You may become a member of the "Victory Legion," an honor group of Americans, by purchasing one or more $1,000 Series "E" Savings Bonds; or by obtaining subscriptions for five or more $1,000 Series "E" Bonds. If you want to buy five $200 Roosevelt Bonds instead of a $1,000 "E" Bond, you can be enrolled in the "Victory Legion." When you become a "Victory Legionnaire," you receive a special membership card and window sticker for your home or automobile. Ask your bank or local issuing agent about the "Victory Legion of the Victory Loan."

You can help take care of those who need hospitalization, and speed the return of those still overseas by buying more bonds. Buying bonds in the Victory Loan Drive is a patriotic way to celebrate Armistice Day.

Our country needs your cooperation now to make this first Victory Loan Drive a success. Let us finish the job by joining the "Victory Legion."

Europe, fearful of military dictation and military influence, and they made the great mistake of trying to keep the military isolated.

Discussing MacArthur's suggestion with a reporter today, Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.), acting chairman of the Military Committee said "I disagree heartily with that plan. I think our forefathers were pretty wise. We have got to continue civilian control of the military agencies."

Senator Austin (W-Vt.), ranking Republican member, said he did not wish to engage in a direct controversy with MacArthur but added that this country must continue its "traditional attitude to maintain clear civilian control over the military branch."

"This civilian control has contributed to the orderly development of our federal system," Austin continued in an interview. "We must have care we do not spoil this counterbalance to sudden and unforeseen changes in our civil government."

Said military department leaders "have suffered frightfully in the past because they did not know what went on in the cabinet sessions."
